

Mobile Air Toxins In the South West

Examples of Mobile Air Toxins

- Cars
- Buses
- Construction Vehicles
- Motor scooters
- Motorcycles
- Trucks
- Lawn Mowers
- Trains

Why You Should Care About Mobile Air Toxins

- Mobile air toxins can cause up to 50% of the air pollution
- Air pollution can cause asthma attacks, difficulty breathing, and heart problems
- Air pollution creates acid rain which can damage buildings, plants, animals

You Can Reduce Mobile Air Toxins In Your Community

- Ride a bike or walk!
- Drive your car less!
- Tell bus drivers not to idle (have the engine on but the bus is not moving) the engines!
- Make sure your car is in good shape—check the engine, filter, air conditioner and tires!
- Plant a tree!
- Use an electric lawnmower.

